AT THE NEW YEAR'S EVE SHOW

Jean Arthur seems to be pleading with Lionel Barrymore to be sure not to fail to be present at the big Fox Sequoia Theater late New Year's Eve show. We can tell you now that he will be there, and so will James Stewart, Edward Arnold, Mischa Auer, Spring Byington, and many others in "You Can't Take It With You." A special added feature will be Johnny Shaw at the mighty organ, playing for community singing.

Kentucky's first postoffice was established at Danville in 1792 in a building that is still standing.

Louisiana has 75 one-variety cotton communities taking in approximately 3000 farmers.

3-Day Celebration's Events Are Listed

The three-day celebration marking completion of the new courthouse annex, city hall extention, library, harbor wharf and warehouse, Sequoia high school additions, Lincoln School auditorium and McKinley and Garfield classroom additions in Redwood City will include a program as follows, under plans submitted by Recreation Director Alfred (Red) Morton to the city council and approved Tuesday.

License Plates Due Next Week

First on the order of business starting the new year for California's millions of car owners will be renewal of automobile registration and securing new license plates for 1939.

Promptly on the morning of Tuesday, Jan. 3, after the week-end New Year holiday, the renewal period will get under way. It will close at midnight, Feb. 4.

Those who fail to apply before the time limit will be penalized by law with a double registration fee and a 50 per cent increase in the amount of license fee based on car valuation.

The regular registration fee is $3 for private passenger automobiles and the license fee is at the rate of $1.75 per $100 value. Postcard notices of the total amount due are mailed in advance of the renewal period by the Department of Motor Vehicles. The postcard should be preserved and presented with the 1938 certificate of car registration when applying for 1939 plates.

Registration will be renewed and plates issued by the department at its various offices, but the California Highway Patrol, and by the California State Automobile Association to member motorists at offices in principal cities throughout northern and central California.

Plates for 1939 have an entirely new color scheme of gold lettering on a blue background. They also bear the words, "California World's Fair 39," to herald the Golden Gate International Exposition.

Autoist Charged $50 For Hit-Run Driving

Joe Carmosino, 52, Sunnyvale, Wednesday pleaded guilty before Judge Edward I. McAuliffe to a charge of misdemeanor hit-run driving and paid a $50 fine.

Carmosino admitted that the car he was driving struck that driven by Terry Rayner, San Francisco Olympic Club employe, shortly after midnight Christmas Eve on the Bayshore Hwy. near Palo Alto, and that he failed to stop. He was arrested a short time later by the California Highway Patrol in the vicinity of the Sunnyvale airbase, on a charge of being drunk.

Carmosino was brought to Redwood City after being traced through the license number taken by Rayner. Both cars were damaged in the accident, but no one was injured.

Return of Sequoia Survey Forms Asked

Sequoia High School graduates who have not as yet returned the questionnaire sent them in connection with a survey of occupational work being made by the counseling staff of the school were urged today by James M. Eva, in charge of the inquiry, to send the forms back within the next two weeks.

Some 800 questionnaires have been returned, but there are more than 400 still out, he said.

Purpose of the survey is to determine value of the Sequoia curriculum in vocations.

Queen Contest Planned For Civic Celebration

Event To Start Next Monday; Merchants Aid

Victor Will Compete At Treasure Isle For Honors

The Spring festival which Redwood City plans for May 12, 13 and 14 to celebrate completion of nearly three quarters of a million dollars worth of public buildings began to shape up this week when it was announced that a queen contest would be started next week in connection with the fete.

The Redwood City girl selected as queen will reign not only over the Spring celebration, but over a World's Fair dance to be held Feb. 11—week before opening of the exposition on Treasure Island—and will represent this city throughout the year at the Golden Gate International Exposition, according to W. M. (Bill) Werder, who has been named by the city recreation advisory commission as chairman of a committee to handle the contest.

COMPETE AT FAIR

As the city's representative, she will compete with other girls from over the state for queen of the fair.

Selection of the "all-year queen" will be made in much the same manner as was the selection of Miss Jo Ann Andersen as queen of Redwood City's Harbor Opening Festival Sept. 11, 1937.

Leading merchants of the city are asked to co-operate by distributing votes with purchases, Werder explained. He and his committee — Paul E. Lowe, Ed Greely and Sam Alberson—plan to contact all business houses this week to get them to participate. He stressed the fact that success of the contest—and incidentally of Redwood City's participation in the World's Fair and of the Spring celebration—will depend on the amount of cooperation received from the business men.

NOMINATIONS MONDAY

First list of merchants to participate will be published in the Tribune on Friday.

Then on Monday a nomination blank will be published, with the queen contest actually getting under way on Tuesday. It will end in time for the queen to be crowned at the Feb. 11 ball—in about five weeks after its start.

Werder said that any unmarried girl in the immediate Redwood City district between the ages of 16 and 21, inclusive, would be eligible to participate. She can enter as an individual, or can be sponsored by an organization, as were contestants in the harbor festival contest. Queen contest headquarters will be at Werder's insurance office at 12 California St.

Funds derived from the queen contest and from the Feb. 11 dance will go first to sponsor the civic celebration in May and then towards the building fund of the proposed recreation center, according to Alfred (Red) Morton, director of recreation for Redwood City.

MORTON HANDLING FETE

Morton himself, working under the sponsoring recreation advisory committee, is in charge of details for the Spring Fete.

On the exposition advisory committee under which he works, as appointed last month by Mayor Louis C. Christensen, are seven members of the advisory board, who include Wayne R. Millington, chairman; Miss Mildred Hoenck, secretary; Kenneth W. Van Gundy, Donald L. Bogie, Andrew Spinas, Mrs. Louis A. McAtee and James P. Hagan. Recently appointed to the advisory board but not members of the exposition committee are Walter Peterson and Werder.

Big game hunters in Wyoming this season bagged 3959 elk, 1637 deer, 29 moose, 5 mountain sheep and 28 bears.

'CHRISTMAS CAROL' DUE SOON

CHAMBER HEAD REUNION SET

Scheduled for sometime in May as part of the exposition celebration, a reunion of Peninsula chamber of commerce directors who served from 1921 to 1926 and worked with San Francisco in establishing the Bayshore and Skyline Blvds. is being arranged by D. C. Imboden, San Luis Obispo editor.

The University of Georgia has three sound movie machines and 28 sound films for classroom use.

Hip Injury Proves Fatal to R. C. Woman

Mrs. Ida May Soufe, for three and a half years a resident of Redwood City, where she lived with her son, Wesley Kinney, at 1102 Jefferson Ave., died at a San Mateo hospital on Monday after being ill since Nov. 8, when she fell and broke her hip. She was 57.

Funeral services have been tentatively set for 10:30 a.m. tomorrow at the Franklin, Martine & Crowe Mortuary. Rev. Victor Lundgren, pastor of the Free Methodist Church, is to officiate. Interment will be in Cypress Lawn Cemetery.

MENLO PARK NEWS

BEGLEY-MATTES RITES

MENLO PARK, Dec. 30—Joseph J. Begley and Marie Mattes were united in marriage by Judge Edward I. McAuliffe in Redwood City Wednesday afternoon, Dec. 28. The pretty bride is a daughter of the sunny South, having lived most of her life in New Orleans. Mr. Begley has resided in Menlo Park for several years and is known and respected by everyone. The sponsors of the marriage were Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Lindstrom, late of New Orleans. Mr. and Mrs. Begley will live in Menlo Park.

G. Francisconi, who has conduited the Oak Grove Villa for some time, has closed the hostelry and moved to San Mateo. The hotel building was erected many years ago by the late Thomas Fitzgerald, after the old one was destroyed by fire. Fitzgerald did a thriving business then during the construction of the Stanford buildings.

Walter Gale is spending the holiday season with his mother, Mrs. Al Gale, on Glenwood Ave. Mr. Gale is a prominent business man of San Bernardino. He has resided in the southern part of the state since leaving Menlo Park many years ago.

According to Postmaster Morey, the local post office did a larger volume of business during the Christmas holidays than at any previous year. The office was opened Saturday afternoon and Sunday morning for the accommodation of the patrons.

Miss Rose Lynch left for Reno yesterday to spend a few weeks with her brother, J. B. Lynch, superintendent of the grounds of the State University. Lynch is also purchasing agent for the institution.

Mrs. Fannie I. Kurtz, the popular and efficient city clerk, has returned from Napa, where she spent Christmas with friends.

Mr. and Mrs. John Glunz celebrated their 54th wedding anniversary on Christmas Day. The couple was married in San Francisco in 1884. Mrs. Glunz is a native daughter, while Mr. Glunz is a native of Illinois. For several years Mr. Glunz has been the building inspector for Menlo Park.

Fred Hummel is passing the holidays with his father on Laurel Ave. Young Hummel is a senior at the state university and is majoring in economics. He plans a business career.

James Gleason, the plumber, is recovering from severe blows on the head and face assertedly inflicted with a beer bottle by Kenneth Young, a painter. The fight occurred over a card game at the former's home on Santa Cruz Ave. Both men are well known in Menlo Park.

The scarcity of robins at this season is alarming the farmers. It has long been a tradition with them that a large flight of the birds from the north during the Winter months is an omen of a rainy season.

3000 REGISTER AT S. J.

SAN JOSE, Dec. 28—San Jose State College registrants for the Winter quarter numbered approximately 3000, college officials announced today after compilation of figures from yesterday's registration.

Huge Bonfire Set To Honor 'Twelfth Night'

Brilliant Blaze Would Destroy Hazards Of Fire

Used Christmas trees will not clutter up back yards or garbage cans or the city dump in Redwood City this year to become fire hazards.

Instead, they will become fuel next Thursday for a huge fire which, it is believed, will rival in brilliance, if not in longevity, the annual Big Game bonfire staged on the Stanford University campus. Accompanying the evening blaze will be some sort of entertainment or program.

Conceived almost simultaneously in the minds of two Redwood City citizens, the idea of reviving the old custom of burning Christmas trees to celebrate "Twelfth Night" was developed yesterday afternoon. From everyone approached by the two men—Lewis Franklin, mortician, and Roscoe D. Wyatt, chamber of commerce secretary,—came enthusiastic praise for the scheme.

Trucks will make the rounds of the city on Thursday, beginning at 8 a.m., to pick up trees.

PUT TREES IN YARD

Householders are asked to put their trees in their front yards on that day.

A start of 350 trees, which were left unsold in the stock of local Christmas tree dealers, already has been secured for the blaze.

It was expected the burning would take place on Broadway somewhere between Main St. and Bayshore Hwy. in a vacant lot, where citizens may park their cars to watch the blaze.

Straight 7-Cent Fair on Trolleys

Permission for the Market Street Railway Co. of San Francisco to begin charging a straight 7 cents-per-token fee for riding on their cars was granted Tuesday by the State Railroad Commission, and the company has announced that the new fare will go into effect Jan. 1.

Last Summer the company was permitted to boost its fare price to 7 cents a ride or four tokens for 25 cents. Yesterday the commission said the company could now sell tokens at the rate of five for 35 cents, or at the rate of 7 cents each regardless of quantity.

City Atty. John J. O'Toole told the San Francisco board of supervisors that apparently there as no way for the city to combat the fare rise. He said, however, that he will continue his study of the company's franchise to determine if the city has a right under any grants to define service conditions.

Traffic Group Studies Plan

San Mateo County's Traffic Safety Commission, headed temporarily by John L. Hardiman of San Bruno since resignation of Dr. A. H. Nobbs of Burlingame, will consider "as a special order of business" at its Jan. 9 meeting the proposal of Col. Robert A. Roos that an emergency hospital be established at Mills Field for treatment of traffic crash victims, Hardiman announced here in a telegram to Colonel Roos.

Hardiman, who also is chairman of District 26, American Legion's traffic safety commission, told Colonel Roos he "heartily commends your recommendation" and that "you may definitely depend on the co-operation of our organization . . ."

"Your interest in traffic safety in our county is highly appreciated," he added.

Widespread individual and collective support has come for Colonel Roos' suggestion.

Edward Young, S. C. Broker, Passes Away

Edward E. Young, San Carlos real estate broker who lived on Devonshire Blvd., San Carlos, passed away Monday at a San Mateo hospital after a short illness.

Mr. Young, a native of Indiana, had lived in San Carlos for 10 years. He was the husband of Inez D. Young and father of Mrs. Yvonne Y. Dalton of Fresno and Dr. Dwight D. Young of Los Angeles. A brother, a sister and three grandchildren also survive.

Man, Boy Wounded In Shooting Mishap

Tony Rossi, 25, of San Francisco, was held in Junipero Serra Hospital, Colma, today, apparently with a .22 caliber bullet in his lung after he was accidentally shot Monday while on a picnic at Salada Beach, Sharp Park.

Rossi was shot in the chest by Robert Stewart, 8, son of Lawrence Stewart, of the same address as Rossi, while the two men were showing the boy how to shoot a small-bore pistol. The lad was holding the gun when he apparently touched the sensitive trigger, the elder Stewart told Special Officer Al Coe, who investigated.

The bullet seared the boy's left index finger and lodged in Rossi's chest, just under his arm. Doctors at the hospital probed for the bullet but were not able to find it, and planned to take X-rays this afternoon to determine its location.

Hospital attaches said Rossi's condition was not serious, possibility of infection being the principal danger. The boy was not hurt seriously enough to require a doctor's care.

Pig, Bitten by Dog, Succumbs to Rabies

Fears that animals on a Skyline Blvd. ranch had contracted rabies were proved well founded here when Dr. Charles C. Gans, county health department chief, disclosed that the head of a pig which had taken sick on the Sumner Ranch, near the ranch of James Rolph III, last Thursday gave a positive reaction to a test for rabies at state laboratories at the University of California, Berkeley.

The pig had been bitten by the rabid dog that bit Mrs. Ethel G. Sumner Oct. 9, Dr. Gans said. Mrs. Sumner had found the dog on the mountain highway and had taken it home. It went mad and bit her, then attacked the pig and a rabbit before it could be killed.

The rabbit was killed in the attack, but the pig remained healthy until Thursday. It was killed Friday and the head sent to the health office here.

Mrs. Sumner has been taking Pasteur treatments since she was bitten, and has shown no signs of illness, Dr. Gans said.

Earthworms once broke up a church in Sault Ste. Marie, Mich., when they were presented to an elder for distribution among his fishermen associates and dissension arose over the apportionment, with some of the members seceding and building another church.

Garlic-Parsley an Aid in HIGH BLOOD PRESSURE
Medical reports say that Garlic-Parsley concentrate has a double action in reducing high blood pressure. First, it tends to relax tightened arteries. Second, it checks or inhibits decomposition of waste matter in the bowels, a contributory cause of high blood pressure. To get concentrated garlic and parsley in odorless, tasteless form, ask for ALLIMIN. These tablets, used repeatedly at regular intervals, aid in reducing blood pressure and relieving headache and dizziness caused by excessively high readings. To learn what raises your blood pressure and for medical treatment consult your doctor. Large box, 50c. Special economy size, $1.00.

Formal Charge Of Murder Filed Against Beichert

Richard Beichert officially faced trial for murder here when an information bearing that charge against him was filed in the superior court by the district attorney's office.

That the 19-year-old youth, who killed his foster father, William J. Beichert, with a .22-caliber pistol the morning of Dec. 10 to avenge a beating he claims was administered to his foster mother, Mrs. Ada M. Beichert, by the elder Beichert, would plead not guilty to the charge was indicated by Edmund Scott, former district attorney and counsel for the boy.

Date of arraignment in superior court of young Beichert on the murder charge had not been set this afternoon by the county clerk. The usual procedure is to have the defendant plead on the Monday following the indictment, Dep. Dist. Atty. Louis B. Dematteis said.

However, since next Monday is a legal holiday, Beichert cannot enter his plea on that day, and whether he would be permitted to plead later next week or on the following Monday was not decided.

The information charges Beichert with murder, the degree of which will be determined by the trial jury.

Mrs. Beichert, whose skull was shattered by a brutal beating administered some time early on the morning of Dec. 10, died at 1 a.m. Dec. 15 after hanging on to life by the barest thread for five days. Doctors had given her no chance to recover, after finding the surface of her brain torn beneath a depressed fracture.

Because of the fact young Beichert's trial may be held within the next few weeks, probably about the middle of January, it was considered doubtful if further efforts will be made to have him admitted to bail.

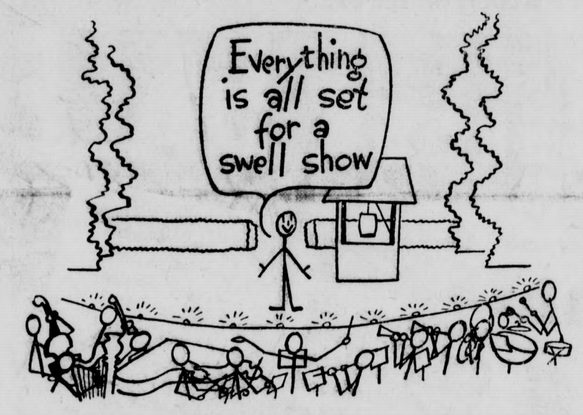
Two of Early-Day Residents Succumb

Two of Redwood City's old-timers have recently passed away in San Francisco where they had been living.

Mrs. Augusta D. Stuttmeister, wife of the late Dr. William O. Stuttmeister, early-day Redwood City dentist, died on Christmas Day. Funeral services were set for Thursday at 11 a.m. at the chapel of Ashley & McMullen, Sixth Ave., and Geary St., San Francisco. Dr. Stuttmeister was one of the city's leading dentists from the 1890s to 1916. He had offices in the old Wahl Building on Main St., which was razed when Broadway was extended.

Nellie Eugenia Turner, who died Monday, was the daughter of the late Mrs. William H. Hanson, wife of the late owner of the Tacoma Mill Co. It was Mr. Hanson who gave the county the huge flagpole which recently was moved from the courthouse to the city hall. Funeral and interment for the deceased were private at Gray's.

STRIKE UP THE BAND! HERE COMES 1939!



Dear Johns-Manville Redwood City Plant

WHAT DO YOU THINK ABOUT NEXT YEAR?

IS IT GOING TO BE PRETTY GOOD?

George A. Citizen

Dear George-

I think things are lined up for a mighty good 1939.

Of course, I'm not trying to be a prophet, because the best of apple carts are often upset—but I do feel that it has been many years since things have been so well set for real recovery.

The president of my company, in a speech in Boston the other day, took the same slant. Some of the important things I learned from this speech that are of particular interest to you and me in considering what 1939 may hold in store for us are:

1. The American people, in recent elections and in polls of public opinion, have shown they want more horse sense in business and government.

2. The government is beginning to realize that it must work hand in hand with business toward solving the country's problems.

3. Business is assuming increased social responsibilities, and management of sound businesses has realized that it is its job to serve more and more as a trusteeship for the best interests of jobholders, stockholders, customers and the public.

4. Governments abroad are in a dangerous spot, and this makes America see that it must be a good ball team within itself. Uncle Sam knows that if all his players aren't getting their swing at the ball we can't win games in the international league.

So, if this new spirit of teamwork works out as I hope, hurrah for 1939!

My company and the men who run it feel good about prospects.

At any rate, I wish all my workers and all my neighbors in this vicinity, a better, busier, happier New Year.

-Johns-Manville Redwood City Plant

CIGARETTE BURGLARS DRAW TERMS IN SAN QUENTIN AND COUNTY JAIL

Two of three men who pleaded guilty Dec. 5 to burglarizing Redwood City and Burlingame Safeway Stores of cigarettes and cash were sentenced Tuesday to San Quentin prison and the third was committed to a nine months' term in the county jail by Superior Judge Maxwell McNutt.

James O'Hearn, 28, was ordered to spend the term in jail here. He will be admitted to three years' probation. Matthew Collins, 32, and Walter Martin, 25, were given penitentiary terms of 1 to 15 years.

The three men were arrested Oct. 8 after being spotted two nights before by a boy returning home from the theater. The boy reported to police that he saw three suspicious characters loitering around the Arch St. branch of the grocery chain here. He had taken the license number of what appeared to be their car, and through it the men were traced.

According to Dep. Dist. Atty. Louis B. Dematteis, the men admitted stealing 167 cartons of cigarettes and $20 in cash from the Redwood City store, and $150 worth of cigarettes from the Burlingame store Sept. 13. He said they were linked with a long series of similar robberies in Oakland, Berkeley and other East Bay communities.

Stay of execution of sentence until Jan. 3 was granted Martin and Collins. All three pleaded guilty before Judge McNutt and asked for probation.
